To Whom it may Concern,

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation for Mr. Robert Licciardi. I came to know Robert a couple years ago when I was starting my business which is located in Jackson, New Jersey. I was in great need of advertising help as well as needing help with my online presence. As a new business owner, there are many who were trying to get us to allow them to advertise for us, but Robert was the only one with whom I felt was reliable and honest, even if it meant telling me to change some things on my website or to venture out and try something new in my advertising campaign.

My customer base has grown exponentially over the last few years partly due to allowing Robert to take over the advertising for my business even if it meant that I needed to spend a few more dollars to make it happen.

Robert has proven to be a reliable source of help when I had questions, and his attention to personal customer service is what I was looking for when seeking a reputable advertising company.

I have no doubt that his attention to detail, his reliability and personable nature will always make him an asset to any company in any capacity in which he serves. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Jen Steinman, CFSP., M.Ed., C-GC., CT.
